

Vista Grande United Church of Christ

The Vista Views

Greetings, beloved community!

It's hard to believe how quickly the summer is flying by! We have had an eventful summer together, filled with faith, challenge, hope, and invitations to solidarity. Rev. Dr. Kris Watson started us out by talking about the spiritual practice of de-centering, reminding us that though we are an important part of this work, the work isn't about us. Rev. Dr. Anthony Scott encouraged us to be prophetic in our witness – even when we are not heard or understood by the people around us, we are carrying out God's calling and "they will know a prophet has been among them." A gentle word of restoration and hope came from Rev. Dr. Jacque Franklin as she shared her story of being disconnected from her indigenous roots and finding new growth through the sacred act of wandering and reconnecting with the land. Just this last week, Rev. Dr. Stephany Rose Spaulding used the story of Zacchaeus to illustrate the incredibly important practice of truth-hearing, accountability, and repair. As I am writing this, Rev. Dr. Velda Love will speak in a few days and I am sure her workshop and sermon message will be just as transformative and enlightening!

Over this summer, I also preached about what community solidarity looks like and who we assume owns the table. There are two traps American Christianity can easily fall into that we as Vista Grande Community Church actively resist. The first is the idea that both our sin and our salvation is an individual affair best dealt with privately. As a church community primarily made up of people of European descent and whose denomination has roots in violent colonialism, we know that it is not enough for us to address our racist tendencies on an individual level. If we did, we would have plausible deniability, saying things like "I'm not racist! I don't see color!" But since we understand racism, among other oppressive systems, as a social and communal sin we put ourselves in context. It places us in the paradoxical position, as the Talmud puts so eloquently, of not being obligated to complete the work but not being free to desist from it, either. Our job, then, is to "do the next right thing" by doing justice, loving mercy, and walk humbly with God together, wherever it may lead us.

Join the Movement for Racial Justice

A movement often begins with a simple step. The Revs. Traci Blackmon and Velda Love urged Synod goers to take that step — to step out in faith — and Join the Movement Toward Racial Justice.

“Racial justice and anti-racism work is foundational to the mission, vision and purpose of the United Church of Christ,” said Love. “The UCC promotes and believes in ‘Justice for All.’ It is intersectional and intentionally inclusive.”

The second trap, even among churches who want to be inclusive, is acting as if we believe the table belongs to us. This starting point means that inclusion in the life of the church is subject to the whims of people who usually represent the dominant culture and is why so many queer folks are wary of the word “welcome”. A queer reading of Psalm 23 offers us a counter narrative – the table belongs only to God and has been set for the oppressed and it is they who belong there most of all. This, like Rev. Dr. Watson preached, requires us to commit to the sacred practice of de-centering ourselves!

Over the coming months, we will have several opportunities to discern what our faith and justice commitments look like in action. On August 14th, we will be hosting a contemplative anti-racism retreat at Broadmoor Community Church from 10am-4pm. Please RSVP to admin@vgcc.org, especially with any dietary needs. We also have two more town hall meetings - August 8th and August 29th. On August 29th, we will be joined by representatives from Archway Communities so we can discuss the proposal to share space with affordable housing on the church property. I understand that the proposal may spark some anxiety, so I encourage you all to attend so you can get your questions answered.

Before we know it, we will be turning the corner into autumn and the beginning of school, with all of its hopes, joys, and anxieties. Initially, we had hoped that we would be able to return to the building in September. Please know that the Safety and Reopening Committee is working diligently toward that end, we are also concerned about the changes in COVID and the dangers of the variants which are coming to light. We ask that you remain patient and flexible with us as we discern the best possible way to care for everyone in the church community. We will keep you apprised of our activities, plans, and decisions.

We look forward to welcoming back our beloved Pastor Clare from her well-deserved sabbatical. Her first Sunday back will be September 12th. We are in the midst of planning a welcome back celebration for her sometime in the month of September. If you are interested in being part of that planning, please reach out to Donna at admin@vgcc.org! September 19th is Just Peace Sunday and we will be kicking off a sermon series that dives deeply into the VGCC Just Peace statement. Stay tuned for more information!

Blessings, dear friends!

With love,

Pastor Mallory

A little about the theme: "Shoes of the Faith"

We will explore 3 passages of scripture: Moses is instructed to take off his shoes at the burning bush; the prophet Amos, standing in the marketplace, accuses his listeners of "selling the righteous for silver and the needy for a pair of shoes"; the "prodigal son" is given a new pair of shoes when he returns home. These stories point us to 3 essential practices of our faith. We will "play" with the stories, walk the labyrinth, have a shoe tower building contest, and tell some shoe stories of our own.

Mission

Vision for Mission

Mission/Outreach is an integral part of VGUCC ministries. We will pursue opportunities that are reflective of Justice and Peace, denominational and ecumenical, local and global, participatory and financial. We're Looking Into ...

Community Involvement – Food to Power

<https://foodtopowerco.org/dropoff>

Mission

To cultivate a healthy, equitable food system in the greater Colorado Springs community.

Vision

We envision a world where communities heal and thrive in relationship with food, land, and each other.

Save your compostables from the trash at home. Then, whenever it's convenient for you, swing by the dropoff station of your choosing and kiss your scraps goodbye into the bins.

Food To Power Compost (formerly Soil Cycle) takes it from there: collecting and hauling food scraps, paper and yard waste (see: what's compostable?) for composting at community gardens, transfer to a regional composting facility and, in 2022, processed at our home site at the Hillside Hub.

Finished compost is a rich, living soil amendment that promotes nutrient cycling and retention of water and carbon in soils — the foundation of a healthy environment and a resilient food supply!

Join the composting community that puts “waste” to work regenerating soil fertility for plants, people and planet.

Adult Faith Formation “Percolate” 8:30 a.m.

As usual all are welcome, whether or not you’ve read the book. We meet around 8:30 on zoom before the worship service. (During COVID, you’ll have to “percolate” your own coffee.)

Percolate is reading Caste-The Origins of Our Discontents by Isabel Wilkerson. Once again we find ourselves asking “why didn’t I know this already?” She makes a distinction between a caste system that controls so much of our lives and our behaviors, and race, which is a contrived concept. Her words also lead us into lively discussions on other racial justice issues.

Shout out!

Amanda Udis-Kessler wrote a song that was chosen to be the closing hymn of the closing worship for the United Church of Christ Synod in July. These worship services often have 5,000 participants.

Thank you, Amanda for sharing your talent with the wider church as well as Vista Grande. We are so blessed to have you!

COME, GROW WITH US

We are a caring church for thinking people, an inclusive community of faith, united in our common quest to know God, inspired by the spirit of Jesus, and committed to sharing that love in ways that will make a difference in the world.

We are the Open and Affirming (ONA) Church in Northeast Colorado Springs.

Vista Grande UCC is an Open and Affirming Church.

“We, the congregation of Vista Grande Community Church United Church of Christ in Colorado Springs, CO declare ourselves to be Open and Affirming. We strive to be a congregation that includes all persons, embracing differences of sexual orientation, gender and its expression, marital status, family make-up, age, mental and physical health and ability, racial and cultural identity or background, and educational and socio-economic status. We welcome all to share in the life, leadership, ministry, fellowship, worship, sacraments, responsibilities, blessings, and joys of our congregation's life in Christ.

“No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.”

Vista Grande UCC is a Just Peace Church. “We, the Covenantal Partners of Vista Grande Community Church United Church of Christ, declare ourselves a Just Peace Church. As a congregation and as individuals, we prayerfully strive to live out Jesus' non-violent words and actions in treating all people and the environment with dignity and respect. With humility, we seek to establish relationships with others through what may be uncomfortable conversations. While calling attention to imbalances of power and privilege, we will promote peacemaking and work to resist and dismantle religious, political, economic and social systems of oppression. We acknowledge that peace and justice work is a dynamic process, and we will need to grow continually in our empathy in order to have a positive impact in our homes, neighborhoods, communities, nation and world.”
